Dedication

The reprinting of this Catechism is dedicated to all the Christian parents who earnestly desire to fulfill one of the noblest duties given to their life – raising their children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. May the Lord bless your labors, according to the riches of His mercy and grace.

Foreword

It is with great joy that we offer this treasure of biblical truth which was the Catechism the late C.H. Spurgeon provided his church. Charles H. Spurgeon lived from 1834-1892 and was greatly used by the Lord to faithfully preach and teach the gospel. History has proven him to be one of the most influential Baptist ministers of all time and the most widely read.

Parents and grandparents, gather the children in your life around, and together explore through the questions and answers offered in the Catechism. Read the proof texts and then add your own as the Spirit leads your time together (one good idea is to write the date you read it and which child adds what thoughts or scriptures) this will allow you to observe through the years how they have grown in their understanding of the material.

When done daily, a solid and biblical foundation will begin to be established in the hearts and minds of your children. In time and according to God's plans, they will be equipped to earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints

Your affectionate servant in Christ,

D.W. Barger

Preface

I am persuaded that the use of a good Catechism in all our families will be a great safeguard against the increasing errors of the times, and therefore I have compiled this little manual from the Westminster Assembly's and Baptist Catechisms, for the use of my own church and congregation. Those who use it in their families or classes must labor to explain the sense; but the words should be carefully learned by heart, for they will be understood better as years pass.

May the Lord bless my dear friends and their families evermore, is the prayer of their loving Pastor.

C. H. Spurgeon
